

Recommended Accommodation in and around Verona

Weekend May 9 – 11 2025

Below are listed five hotels that we have tried personally or are known to us via friends. But please feel free to find accommodation outside of these five that may better suit your needs, these are listed as a guide only.

If you find alternative accommodation, we would be very interested in your opinions and reviews for future reference.

We are available by phone or e-mail if there are any questions regarding the accommodations listed here or the location of others that you might find.

Nina and Tonya

Hotel Accademia

*Old world elegance Veronese style.
4 star hotel*

A tasteful and refined hotel, conveniently located between Piazza Erbe and the Arena di Verona, it offers elegant rooms decorated with classic veronese charm. It offers an international buffet breakfast with a wide choice and a gym.

The location of the Hotel Accademia gives participants the luxury of exploring Verona on foot and strolling through the city at their leisure and is just a stone's throw from via Mazzini, Verona's famous street where you will find a mixture of sophisticated shops including famous Italian brands.

Magari Estates

Rustic charm amongst the vines
3 star accommodation but so much more

A beautiful 16th century estate in the Veneto countryside, it was originally built as a nobleman's country home and is situated amid the captivating vineyards of Valpolicella and Soave.

The restaurant offers local specialties, the buffet breakfast is outstanding, as is the view from the dining room, of gentle rolling hills and golden grape vines.

Magari Estates is offering a discount to German Australian Business Council participants. Please indicate when you RSVP if you would like to make a reservation here and we will send you a booking link with a discounted rate

Note: This accommodation is located outside of Verona.

Participants will need to be arriving by car or together with a group that might like to contribute for a driver to bring you into Verona, to the pick-up point for the minibus, which we can organise for you independently but please advise when you make your RSVP for the event.

(The cost of transfer by private vehicle from Magari to Verona is €60 each way and the vehicle can carry 7 people)
